JAPAN WON'T CONSENT

AND WILL FIGHT A RUSSIAN MANCHURIA

Member of Japanese House of Peers Talks on War Conditions in the Orient—Chinese Must Control Territory.

Victoria, B. C., March 11.—Prince Konoike, president of the Japanese House of Peers, recently gave the Japanese Advertiser an interview on the Manchurian question. As head of the National Union League he has taken a prominent part in all protests against Russia's territorial plans on Chinese soil. "Japan will never consent to a Russian Manchuria," said the Prince. "On this point the Government is absolutely determined. Nor should we hesitate to have recourse to armed remonstrance were Russia to continue in her recent semi-defiant attitude. We have the sympathy of both the United States and Great Britain in this matter, and we know what we are doing. "Japan has no objection whatever to Russia's leasing Port Arthur. It would not in any way menace our interests as for the trans-Manchurian railway, we regard its construction with lively satisfaction, in that it will unquestionably serve to open new fields for foreign industrial and commercial undertakings. But Russia would have to maintain troops along the railway in order to keep it from attack on the part of the natives. "Would Japan object to Russian troops in Manchuria for this purpose? At all where the presence of such troops is necessary, as in the case with the railroad. But Russia's great territorial army on Chinese soil must be withdrawn beyond the frontier and that without further loss of time. That province must be kept entirely under Chinese control, not only because of its mineral and other wealth, but because as being the birthplace of the present Chinese dynasty, continued occupation of Manchuria by any foreign power whatever would mean the downfall of the present dynasty and subsequent revolution anarchy. I am convinced that the existence of Manchuria as a Chinese state is positively necessary to the maintenance and continuance of the present Chinese Government."

"The United States," says the memorial, "when declaring war on Spain, explicitly stated that their action would be limited to freeing Cuba from Spanish rule. It was, therefore, understood by those in Europe engaged in trade with Cuba that no measures would be adopted at the conclusion of the war which would restrict or destroy their trade with that island. Such a reciprocity treaty as that anticipated would undoubtedly put an end to European trade with the island. The chambers, therefore, most earnestly request that the utmost effort be made by His Majesty's Minister at Washington to prevent the signing of any such treaty, or, at least, to see that the most-favored-nation treatment of Cuba be continued to this nation. It is represented that French and German interests would suffer by a reciprocity treaty, and it is suggested a joint protest might be effectual in preventing a change adverse to the interests of Europe in trade with Cuba."

BRITISH TRADE IN CUBA

MEMORIAL IS PRESENTED AGAINST OUR RECIPROCITY

United States Declaration at Opening of War is Called to Notice—Other European Nations are Interested in Island Trade.

London, March 11.—Delegates from a number of chambers of commerce visited the Foreign Secretary, Lord Lansdowne, at the Foreign Office today and presented a memorial relative to British trade with Cuba, pointing out that it was feared that when the administration of that island was handed over to the Cubans a reciprocity treaty would be negotiated admitting Cuban products into the United States at reduced duties, and granting corresponding preferential terms to American products and manufactures by Cuba. "The United States," says the memorial, "when declaring war on Spain, explicitly stated that their action would be limited to freeing Cuba from Spanish rule. It was, therefore, understood by those in Europe engaged in trade with Cuba that no measures would be adopted at the conclusion of the war which would restrict or destroy their trade with that island. Such a reciprocity treaty as that anticipated would undoubtedly put an end to European trade with the island. The chambers, therefore, most earnestly request that the utmost effort be made by His Majesty's Minister at Washington to prevent the signing of any such treaty, or, at least, to see that the most-favored-nation treatment of Cuba be continued to this nation. It is represented that French and German interests would suffer by a reciprocity treaty, and it is suggested a joint protest might be effectual in preventing a change adverse to the interests of Europe in trade with Cuba."
